

How to Identify Your Gifts

These gifts are foundational, given by God at birth, and are meant to be used alongside the gifts of the Holy Spirit and Jesus for those who are called. To understand which gift is dominant in your life, complete the assessment below, then identify your strongest gift and the next two.

This approach will help you gain clarity on how God has uniquely equipped you to serve others and fulfil your purpose in the world.

Assessment

Purpose of the Assessment:

This assessment is designed to help you identify your primary spiritual gifts, which are inherent tendencies given by God. Understanding these gifts will help you discover your purpose, guide your career choices, and enhance your ministry opportunities. It will also allow you to better serve others and live a more fulfilled life in alignment with your God-given potential.

Assessment Structure:

You will be evaluating yourself across seven motivational gifts: Prophecy, Ministry (Serving), Teaching, Exhortation (Encouraging), Giving, Leadership, and Mercy (Compassion). Each gift has a set of characteristics that you will rate based on your personal experiences and tendencies.

Steps to Complete the Assessment:

- Preparation:
 - Find a quiet place where you can reflect without interruptions.
 - Take your time with each section; this is not a timed exercise.
- Self-Assessment:
 - For each gift, read through the detailed characteristics and personality traits listed.
 - Consider how often you exhibit each characteristic in your daily life, relationships, and work.
 - Rate yourself on the following scale:
 - 1 = Never
 - 2 = Seldom
 - 3 = At times
 - 4 = Usually
 - 5 = Mostly
 - 6 = Always
 - Be honest with yourself. This is not about achieving a perfect score but about understanding where your strengths and tendencies lie.
- Scoring:
 - Add up your scores for each gift category to get a total score.
 - Record the total score for each gift on your assessment sheet.
 - The gift with the highest score is likely your dominant gift. The next two highest scores represent your secondary gifts.
- Reflection:
 - Once you have your scores, review the descriptions and examples provided in the write-up for your top three gifts.
 - Reflect on how these gifts have manifested in your life so far. Consider how they have influenced your career choices, relationships, and ministry.

- Action Plan:
 - Based on your top three gifts, develop an action plan for how you can use these gifts more effectively in your daily life and ministry.
 - Consider ways to counter any suppression or vulnerabilities you may have experienced. For example, if you have the gift of Mercy but often feel overwhelmed by others' needs, plan to set boundaries that protect your emotional well-being while still allowing you to serve.
 - If applicable, think about possible career paths that align with your gifts and how you might pursue them.
 - You may also seek guidance from a mentor or spiritual leader to help you further explore and develop your gifts.
- Ongoing Growth:
 - Remember that these gifts can evolve over time. Continue to pray, seek God's guidance, and be open to new ways your gifts may be expressed.

Final Note:

This assessment is a tool to help you on your spiritual journey. While it provides valuable insights, always seek the confirmation of the Holy Spirit in understanding and applying your gifts.
